

PEOPLE ARE STRANGE

The Doors

Am                      Dm                      Am
People are strange when you're a stranger
Dm                      Am E7                      Am
Faces look ugly when you're alone
Am                      Dm                                      Am
Women seem wicked when you're unwanted
Dm                      Am E7                      Am
Streets are uneven when you're down
                                 E7
When you're strange
C                                      E7
Faces come out of the rain
                                 E7
When you're strange
C                                      E7
No one remembers your name
                                 E7
When you're strange
                                 E7
When you're strange
                                 E7
When you're strange

Am                      Dm                      Am
People are strange when you're a stranger
Dm                      Am E7                      Am
Faces look ugly when you're alone
Am                      Dm                                      Am
Women seem wicked when you're unwanted
Dm                      Am E7                      Am
Streets are uneven when you're down
                                 E7
When you're strange
C                                      E7
Faces come out of the rain
                                 E7
When you're strange
C                                      E7
No one remembers your name
                                 E7
When you're strange
                                 E7
When you're strange
                                 E7
When you're strange

Am

Dm

E7

C

